Monitoring and Review

Bacup Nursery School is an inclusive school, working towards greater equality in the whole school community. We use the curriculum and teaching to enhance the self-esteem of all those it serves and to provide a learning environment in which each individual is encouraged to fulfil her or his potential.
We collect and analyse a range of equality information for our pupils:
• Ethnicity
• Disability
• Gender
• Attainment data
• Attendance data
• Behaviour logs
• Complaints of bullying or harassment

We make regular assessments of pupils’ learning and use this information to track pupils’ progress, as they move through the school. As part of this process, we regularly monitor the performance of different groups, to ensure that all groups of pupils are making the best possible progress. We use this information to adjust future teaching and learning plans, as necessary.
Resources are available to support groups of pupils where the information suggests that progress is not as good as it should be. The governing body receives regular updates on pupil performance information.
School performance information is collated and analysed against the ages and stages within the EYFS Framework. Data from nursery assessment performance cannot be compared against other schools as it is not like for like.

As well as monitoring pupil performance information, we also regularly monitor a range of other information.
This relates to:
• Attendance
• Exclusions and truancy
• Racism, disability, sexism, homophobia and all forms of bullying
• Parental involvement
• Participation in Extended Learning Opportunities

Our monitoring activities enable us to identify any differences in pupil performance and provide specific support as required, including pastoral support. This allows us to take appropriate action to meet the needs of specific groups in order to make necessary improvements.

Bacup Nursery School is also committed to providing a working environment free from discrimination, bullying, harassment and victimisation. We aim to recruit an appropriately qualified workforce and establish a governing body that is representative of all sections of the community in order to respect and respond to the diverse needs of our population.

Appendix – Equality Legislation Guidance

What does a school need to do?
(Note: The duties outlined below are now elements of the Public Sector Equality Duty)

Race
The term race includes colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin and citizenship as well as race.

The Race Equality Duty

What is it?
● The Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000 (which includes the Race Equality Duty) amended the Race Relations Act 1976
● It came into effect from April 2001

Who is covered?
● Pupils, parents/carers, prospective pupils and parents/carers, staff, job applicants, governors and others using school facilities

General duties
● Tackle racial discrimination
● Promote equality of opportunity
● Promote good relations between persons of different racial groups

Specific duties
● From May 2002 publish a Race Equality Policy which includes an implementation strategy or action plan (effectively a Race Equality Scheme), monitor it annually and review it every three years
● Involve appropriate and diverse stakeholders in developing the policy
● Monitoring the impact of the school’s policies on pupils’ performance and progress
● Provide ethnic monitoring data on their staff in regular returns to the Local Authority

Reporting racist incidents in schools
All racist incidents are challenged. Parents are informed and a record kept in the school Bullying, Behaviour and Racist incident diary. All racist incidents are reported to the Governing Body (within the Headteacher’s Report) and an annual summary of racist incidents is reported to Lancashire County Council.

Disability

What is a disability?
● Disability is a physical or mental impairment which has an effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. That effect must be:
  substantial (more than minor or trivial)
  adverse
  long-term (it has lasted, or is likely to last, for at least a year or for the rest of the life of the person affected).
  There is no need for a person to have a specific, medically-diagnosed cause for their impairment – what matters is the effect of the impairment, not the cause.
  Examples include hearing or sight impairments, a significant mobility difficulty, mental health conditions or learning difficulties. There are many other types of condition, illness or injury that can result in a person being disabled (e.g. diabetes, asthma, cancer, arthritis, epilepsy, multiple sclerosis, heart conditions, facial disfigurement).

General duties
● Promote equality of opportunity
● Eliminate unlawful discrimination
● Eliminate disability-related harassment
● Promote positive attitudes towards disabled people
• Encourage disabled people’s participation in public life
• Take steps to take into account people’s disabilities.

GENDER

The term gender includes boys, girls, men and women, and transgender/transsexual people. Sexual orientation is a distinct protected characteristic. (The term transgender refers to a range of people who do not feel comfortable with their birth gender).

What is the difference between sex and gender?

• Sex refers to biological status as male or female. It includes physical attributes such as sex chromosomes, gonads, sex hormones, internal reproductive structures, and external genitalia.
• Gender is a term that is often used to refer to ways that people act, interact, or feel about themselves, which are associated with boys/men and girls/women. While aspects of biological sex are the same across different cultures, aspects of gender may not be.

Sexual Orientation

Heterosexism is any prejudice and discrimination against individuals and groups who are lesbian, gay, bisexual (LGB) or are perceived to be so. It is based on the assumption that everyone is or should be heterosexual. Expressions of dislike, contempt or fear based on heterosexism are usually known as homophobia, although lesophobia and biphobia are also coming into use. Whether through institutional practice or personal behaviour, the prevalence of heterosexism is likely to mean that LGB people feel excluded and unsafe. This effect can be mitigated by an actively welcoming and supportive environment.

Sexual orientation is defined as an individual’s sexual orientation towards people of the same sex as her or him (gay or lesbian), people of the opposite sex (heterosexual) or people of both sexes (bisexual).

General duties

• Eliminate unlawful discrimination and harassment
• Promote equality of opportunity between male and female pupils and between men and women
• Promote good relations

Specific duties

• From April 2007, prepare and publish a Gender Equality Scheme, showing how the school will meet its general and specific duties and set out its gender equality objectives, as well as its plans for stakeholder consultation and impact assessment
• Monitor the scheme annually and review it every three years.

Transgenderism and gender re-assignment

Transgender is an umbrella term used to describe people whose gender identity or gender expression differs from that usually associated with their birth sex. Gender re-assignment is the process a transgender person goes through to change sex
