Band 1 – English Reading

Word Reading

- I can use letter sounds to work out and read new words.
- I can say quickly the sound of all the letters and letter groups.
- I can read new words correctly by blending the letter and letter group sounds I have been taught.
- I can read some common exception words and see where the letter sounds are different.
- I can read words made up of the letter sounds I know and which have endings -s, -es, -in, -ed, and -est.
- I can read words of more than one syllable using sounds that I have been taught.
- I can read words like I’m, I’ll and we’ll and understand that the apostrophe represents the missing letter or letters.
- I can read aloud books that use letters and letter groups I have been taught.
- I can use the sounds I know to re-read books more fluently and with more confidence.

- Spoken Language
- I can listen to and talk about a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction.
- I can join in a talk about the title and what happens in a book.
- I can recite some poems and rhymes by heart.
- I can say out loud what I am going to write about.
- I can speak a sentence before writing it.
- I can read aloud my writing clearly enough to be heard by the group and the teacher.
- I can use words about the time (including telling the time using o’clock and half past).
- I can discuss and solve problems in familiar practical contexts, including using quantities.
