Barnaby Bear visits Brazil
I found a map of Brazil on the computer.

It is in America.
I need to go to the bank and get some Brazilian Reales to spend in Brazil.
• I flew from London to Brazil.

• It was an enormous plane!!

• It took me a whole day to arrive!
The most famous city is "Rio de Janeiro".

The capital city is called "Brasilia".
I spent the first days in "Rio de Janeiro".

What differences can you see in the pictures?
This is one of the most famous monuments of the world! Do you know whose sculpture is it of?
The Carnival is the most famous holiday in Brazil. It is celebrated 40 days before Easter. (Normally, in February)
My grand adventure was about to start!!

My trip through the Amazonas:

It is the 2nd longest river in the world. Do you know which one is the 1st?
In the Amazon rainforest it rains almost everyday. It is very hot and humid. Do you know what humid means?
Brazil is considered to have the greatest number of animals and plants in the whole world!
Chocolate is made with cacao beans. The cacao tree needs hot and rainy weather to grow well.

The leading countries that supply cacao include Nigeria, Brazil, Indonesia, Ghana, Ivory Coast, Ecuador, Papua New Guinea, Dominican Republic, and Cameroon.
Yanomami are Indians from the Amazon rainforest, they live among the hills that line the border between Brazil and Venezuela.

Birds, spiders and monkeys are on the menu quite a lot of the time!
They live in villages commonly known as shabonos. From a top view the shape of a shabona is similar to a Donut.
Where should I go next?

LET´S GO TO ASIA!
