Activity 3: Nominate a Life Peer

Who do you really admire? Who inspires you?

Would they be able to speak clearly and calmly to make a point?

It could be someone famous who really inspires you or someone in your local area who really works hard to help others or make a difference.

Who would you nominate and why?

Include at least two reasons why this person should be nominated and write about some of the things that they have done well.

Think carefully – being a member of the Lords is a really important job!

I would nominate...

because...

Have a look at the current members of the House of Lords here:
www.parliament.uk/mps-lords-and-offices/lords
Activity 3: Nominate a Life Peer

Who really inspires you? Who has achieved great things and inspires others?

Would they be able to put a clear point across in the House of Lords?

It could be someone famous who inspires you or someone in your local community whose hard work makes a difference.

Who would you nominate and why?

Include at least three reasons why this person should be nominated as well as writing about the good things they have done.

Think carefully – being a member of the Lords is a really important job!

I would nominate...

because...

Think carefully – being a member of the Lords is a really important job!

Have a look at the current members of the House of Lords here:
www.parliament.uk/mps-lords-and-offices/lords
Activity 3: Nominate a Life Peer

Is there someone you know who is a great role model?

Do they have a cool head and are they able to put their point of view across clearly?

It could be someone famous who inspires you or someone in your local community whose hard work makes a difference.

Who would you nominate to be a life peer and work in the House of Lords to help make the laws? Think carefully – being a member of the Lords is a really important job!

Who would you nominate and why?

Include at least four reasons why this person should be nominated.

List some of their achievements as well.

I would nominate...

because...

Have a look at the current members of the House of Lords here: www.parliament.uk/mps-lords-and-offices/lords