Questions

1. Which of these words describes pop music in the 1960s? Tick one.
   - noisy
   - cool
   - cold

2. People wore __________ clothes. Tick one word to complete the sentence.
   - silly
   - baggy
   - colourful

3. What did toys start to be made of in the 1960s? Tick one.
   - plastic
   - wood
   - metal

   - Lego
   - computer games
   - Etch-a-Sketch

5. When did colour TV begin? Tick one.
   - 1966
   - 1967
   - 1969
Answers

1. Which of these words describes pop music in the 1960s? Tick one.
   - noisy
   - cool
   - cold

2. People wore ____________ clothes. Tick one word to complete the sentence.
   - silly
   - baggy
   - colourful

3. What did toys start to be made of in the 1960s? Tick one.
   - plastic
   - wood
   - metal

   - Lego
   - computer games
   - Etch-a-Sketch

5. When did colour TV begin? Tick one.
   - 1966
   - 1967
   - 1969
Questions

1. What was the name of a famous pop band of the 1960s? Tick one.
   - The Spiders
   - The Beatles
   - The Ladybirds

2. Number these events in the order they happened in the 1960s. The first one has been done for you.
   - England won the World Cup.
   - Colour TV began.
   - The first person went into space.  \[\text{1}\]
   - The first person walked on the moon.

3. Draw lines to match these things to complete the sentences.
   - Music
     - \[\text{looked different and made it easier to dance.}\]
   - Toys
     - \[\text{was fast, fun and made Britain cool.}\]
   - Clothes
     - \[\text{were cheaper and made of plastic.}\]

4. Find and copy a noun phrase that describes the 1960s.

5. Why were the 1960s called ‘The Swinging Sixties’?

   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
1. What was the name of a famous pop band of the 1960s? Tick one.
   - The Spiders
   - The Beatles
   - The Ladybirds

2. Number these events in the order they happened in the 1960s. The first one has been done for you.
   2. England won the World Cup.
   3. Colour TV began.
   1. The first person went into space.
   4. The first person walked on the moon.

3. Draw lines to match these things to complete the sentences.
   - Music looked different and made it easier to dance.
   - Toys was fast, fun and made Britain cool.
   - Clothes were cheaper and made of plastic.

4. Find and copy a noun phrase that describes the 1960s.
   an exciting, hip and groovy time

5. Why were the 1960s called ‘The Swinging Sixties’?
   The 1960s were called ‘The Swinging Sixties’ because new things were happening and lots of things were changing.
Questions

1. Which of these adjectives are used to describe the 1960s in the text? Tick two.
   - thrilling
   - funny
   - exciting

2. Number these events in the order they happened in the 1960s.
   - The first TV channel aired in colour.
   - A man landed on the moon.
   - England won the World Cup.
   - The first person went into space.

3. Fill in the missing words.
   Britain hosted the ____________ World Cup in 19______.
   The missing trophy was found by a dog called ________________.

4. Find and copy a phrase that shows that the new clothes made young people look different.

5. Why do you think space-themed toys and space adventures on TV became popular in the 1960s?

6. Which of the changes that happened in the 1960s do you think was the most important? Give two reasons for your answer.

Answers

1. Which of these adjectives are used to describe the 1960s in the text? Tick two.
   - thrilling
   - funny
   - exciting

2. Number these events in the order they happened in the 1960s.
   3. The first TV channel aired in colour.
   4. A man landed on the moon.
   2. England won the World Cup.
   1. The first person went into space.

3. Fill in the missing words.
   Britain hosted the eighth World Cup in 1966. The missing trophy was found by a dog called Pickles.

4. Find and copy a phrase that shows that the new clothes made young people look different.
   made you stand out from the crowd

5. Why do you think space-themed toys and space adventures on TV became popular in the 1960s?
   I think space-themed toys and space adventures on TV became popular in the 1960s because lots of people watched the moon landing on television.

6. Which of the changes that happened in the 1960s do you think was the most important? Give two reasons for your answer.
   Pupils’ own responses, such as: I think the most important change that happened in the 1960s was cheaper and more colourful toys beginning to be made because before the 1960s toys would have been boring and not everyone could afford to have them.