Year 4 Homework tasks

For homework this half term I must:

- Read a book to someone at least 5 times a week.
- Record in my reading diary every day.
- Practise my spellings at least 4 times a week (test on Wednesdays).
- Practise my times tables at least 4 times a week (use TT Rockstars to help me to do this).
- Read a Bug Club book at least 3 times a week.
- Use Times Tables Rock Stars at least 3 times a week.

Spring Term 2

This half term I must also complete at least 5 of these activities:

- Create an informative poster describing the different states of matter.
- Research an aspect of the Victorians that interests you.
- Use this research to write notes about the area of the Victorians that interests you.
- Write an informative leaflet based upon the details that you have learnt throughout your research.
- To annotate a newspaper report identifying the key features of it.
- To write about something that you are interested in, e.g. an event taking place, an issue you are concerned about, something that has happened in your area or something you know about.
- To write a newspaper report using this information to help you.
- To write a letter to someone about an issue you feel strongly about, e.g. the government about recycling in schools.
- To create a fact file about Queen Victoria.
- To create an informative poster about equivalent fractions.
- To create signs that could be used around the classroom using French vocabulary for objects.
- To create your own pattern piece of art work.
- To demonstrate your understanding of tenths and hundredths as decimals.
- To create a help sheet for anyone who would like to learn how to add and subtract fractions.

Please hand in your homework activities by Friday 27th March.

Writing Targets: I will think carefully about my writing targets when I complete my homework activities.

I will work on my handwriting when completing each homework task.

I will make sure I correctly punctuate every sentence within the tasks I complete, including direct speech punctuation.

I will try to add detail by using expanded noun phrases and fronted adverbials within my writing.
