Tuesday 26th February 2019

Dear Parents and carers,

This year we will be celebrating WORLD BOOK DAY on Friday 8th March and we'd like to commemorate this by running a series of events in school. Today, we are sending home each child a World Book Day voucher. The token entitles your child a free book available at local booksellers or alternatively, the voucher can be used as a £1 off any full priced books. This year, we will:

- be inviting all children to come to school dressed in their pyjamas and bring along with them their favourite book. The reason we have chosen a pyjamas theme is to focus on the importance of bedtime stories and reading at night.
- We would like to invite parents, carers and/or grandparents to come and read with your children in school. Starting at 8:45am, we'd love to have the whole school reading at the same time for half an hour, with family coming in to support and enjoy books with the children!
- At lunchtime there will be a Book swap shop! If your children have some old books - that have not been too loved - and they feel ready to let them go, it would be great if you send them in to school for the swap shop. Then, your child will have the opportunity to swap their old book for a different book that has been brought in to the swap shop. If you'd like to send in your child with a book to swap, please sign the consent form with the book title(s) that your child will be bringing in.
- Don't forget all children are invited to participate in our 'book in a jar competition'. Children show how their favourite book, could be represented in a simple jar. Entries must be in school on the morning of Wednesday 6th March for judging.
- All classes will be participating in exciting World Book day themed lessons throughout the day.

We are extremely looking forward to celebrating World Book Day this year.

Kind regards,

Ms Holden
