Dear parents and carers,

Here is the new date for the postponed phonics workshop! And the original letter.

As you are probably aware, we have started our daily phonics sessions in Cook Class. Very few of us remember how we ourselves learnt to read and write, and so we may find phonics, and all the terminology that comes with it, rather daunting. You are therefore invited to our ‘Phonics for Parents’ session on Monday 4th November at 6pm. The aims are:

- To increase parent/carer confidence and understanding of the teaching of phonics
- To become more aware of how children learn phonics in school
- To share ways that support can be offered at home that reflect the ways we teach phonics in school.

The session will finish at approx. 7.00pm. If you would like to attend, please complete the slip below and hand it in to us in Cook Class. If there are less than 7 people who are able to attend, I am afraid that I will not be able to hold the session.

If you are able, you are invited to stay to participate in one of our daily phonics lessons on a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday at 9.00am. Just let us know when you would like to come. Be prepared for a fun, interactive session!

We look forward to seeing you.

The Early Years Team

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Reply slip

I/We are able to attend the Phonics Workshop on Monday 4th November at 6pm.

My child is ___________________________________________

Signed _______________________

(Print name) ___________________________________________