Wednesday 27th January 2016

Dear Parents,

Volunteer Parent Reading Session: Wednesday 24th February, 9.00-9.45am

Due to the overwhelming response we had to our parent reading volunteer programme last term and the continued level of interest we have had from other parents, we will be running this session again after half term.

Mr Milne and I will be repeating our reading training session on Wednesday 24th February at 9am in the main school hall. We will take you through the various different ways in which we would like your help, and will focus primarily on listening to readers across the school. We will also inform you of certain safeguarding measures that we have in place.

If you attend this session and wish to become a member of our parent volunteer reading team, we will then take you through the process of applying for a DBS check, which enables you to work in our school on a regular basis.

Coffee and tea will be available during the training session.

If you would like to attend this session, please return the slip below by Friday 12th February (the last day of this half term).

Many thanks for your enthusiasm and commitment to helping our children become first class readers.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Stokes
