22nd February 2017

Dear Parents/carers,

On Thursday 2nd March 2017 we will be celebrating World Book Day. The children can come to school dressed as their favourite book character. They can also bring their favourite book into school to share with their class. We would be really grateful of a donation of a good quality second hand children’s book in return for your child dressing up.

The children will receive some homework which is linked to a competition we will hold on World Book Day where a prize will be won from each class. The children will be asked to design a new front cover for a Roald Dahl book with a Fairfield twist to celebrate Roald Dahl’s 100 birthday and 50 Years of Fairfield School. The new front cover design might be for ‘Mr Tuckwell, Pelly and Me’, ‘Mrs Green and the Giant Peach’, ‘Mr Sutcliffe and the Chocolate Factory’ or any other ideas your child might have.

The children will also receive a £1 World Book Day token. This can be used in our upcoming Travelling Book Fair which starts on Monday 20th March 2017 and a percentage of the profits made will be used to buy new books for our school. More information about this will be sent out after World Book Day but start saving!

We look forward to seeing the children dressed up and hearing about their favourite books.

Kind regards,

Mrs Green
