Leicester Mercury Education Awards 2018.

Dear Parents/Carers,

We have been asked to remind you that you have the opportunity to recognise a deserving individual by nominating them for the Leicester Mercury Education Awards 2018, which, in Partnership with the University of Leicester, celebrates the achievements of truly remarkable people within education in Leicestershire.

Full details follow together with how to nominate and who to contact for further information.

Leicester Mercury Education Awards 2018.
Contact: Nadine Clift, Event Coordinator
nadine.clift@reachplc.com
Nominations are now open for our Leicester Mercury Education Awards 2018.
The awards recognise those within the education sector who are excelling in what they do. This could be a student who has achieved amazing results at A Level despite going through a difficult time or perhaps a teacher putting in extra effort with their pupils to inspire and motivate them to excel at school.
We award people of all ages right from primary to mature students, teachers, support staff, schools and school initiatives/ groups as well as awarding those within science, maths, design, sports and music.
We also have a category called the Newly Qualified Teacher Award.
To nominate please go to: www.leicestereducationawards.co.uk

(Please note that nominations are open to everyone. Students, teachers, support staff, family, friends and colleagues can all nominate each other)

Regards,

Tim J Sutcliffe
Executive Head

Glen Hills Primary School
Fairfield Community Primary School
Advisory Head at Old Mill Primary School

www.symphonylearningtrust.co.uk

Leicester