Read the text aloud and underline the 'wh' words:

When I was small I lived next to where my school is. What school was it? Why do people ask? Who can remember so long ago? Its logo is a white horse with a whip. There was a wheel in the yard which was as big as a whale!

What questions can you ask with these 'wh' words?

What

______________________________________

When

______________________________________

Where

______________________________________

Who

______________________________________

Why

______________________________________