Farnborough Road Infant School

Policy on Collective Worship

“Learning, Caring and Achieving Together”.

Aims and objectives
The aims and objectives of collective worship are:

- to provide an opportunity for children to worship God;
- to enable children to consider spiritual, moral, social and cultural issues;
- to enable children to explore their own beliefs and opinions;
- to encourage participation and response;
- to develop in children a sense of community spirit;
- to promote a common ethos, with shared values, and to reinforce positive attitudes;
- to teach children how to worship.

Collective worship
We understand worship to be a special act or occasion whose purpose is to show reverence to God. Collective worship involves all members of the school coming together and participating in an assembly. We expect everyone to take an active part in the assembly.

In line with the 1988 Education Reform Act, which states that collective worship should be 'wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character', we normally base our assemblies on the teachings of Christ and the traditions of the Christian Church. However, we conduct our assemblies in a manner that is sensitive to the faiths and beliefs of all members of the school.

While most acts of worship in our school are Christian, we also hold assemblies that reflect the traditions of other religions that are represented in the school and the wider community.

Organisation of collective worship
We hold a daily act of collective worship. This forms part of each assembly, which can be either a whole-school, year group, Key Stage assembly or a class assembly.

We conduct assemblies in a dignified and respectful way. We tell children that assembly time is a period of calm reflection. We regard it as a special time, and expect children to behave in an appropriate way. We ask them to be quiet and thoughtful, to listen carefully to the teachings, and to participate fully in prayer and hymns. We create an appropriate atmosphere by using music, and sometimes candles or other objects, to focus the attention of the children.

The assemblies are conducted by the Head teacher, Deputy Head teacher or other members of staff, but are sometimes led by local clergy or other representatives of local religious groups.

We take the themes of our assemblies from the traditions of the Christian faith, incorporate Fundamental British Values and we observe the festivals and mark the events of religious calendars. Sometimes the themes of our assemblies are related to topics that we teach as part of the school curriculum e.g. SEAL. We plan our assemblies well in advance of the day they take place.

Our assemblies reflect the achievements and learning of the children. We encourage the children to participate in the assemblies by showing their work to the other children, and by raising issues that they have discussed in their classes. Assemblies provide an opportunity to reward children for their achievements both in and out of school. They also play an important part in promoting the ethos of the school, which is that all children are valued, and all achievements are recognised. Farnborough Road Infant School is a successful school, and we shall continue to celebrate the successes of all our children at our assemblies.

Governors’ attendance at our assemblies is always welcome.
Right of withdrawal
We expect all children to attend assembly. However, any parent can request permission for their child to be excused from religious worship, and the school will make alternative arrangements for the supervision of the child during that part of the assembly. Parents do not have to explain or give reasons for their request. This right of withdrawal complies with the 1944 Education Act, and was restated in the 1988 Education Reform Act.

The Head teacher keeps a record of all children who have been withdrawn from collective worship.

Monitoring and review
Monitoring the policy and practice of collective worship is the role of a named school governor, who is also responsible for Collective Worship. The governor concerned liaises with the Head teacher before reporting to the governors.

This policy will be reviewed regularly.
