Friday 4th May 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are not providing any homework this week. The children are working incredibly hard in school and they showed a real determination to do their best in the first of our SATs tests this week. We plan to carry out the Reading tests next week.

We actively encourage them on this bank holiday weekend to:

- Ride a bike
- Create a masterpiece
- Read their favourite book
- Sing out loud at the top of their voice (sorry parents😊)
- Have a picnic in the garden
- Watch their favourite film - with popcorn of course
- Create a new dance routine
- Play family games
- Learn to skip
- Go swimming
- Plant some flowers
- Laugh, laugh, laugh

Please enjoy this weekend with our best wishes!

Thank you for your continued support.
