Designing and testing a model telescope

Our design will look like:

Things we will need to make it:

How we will test it:

Problems that we found from our testing:

How we changed our designs to solve the problems:

How many tests were needed before we came up with a model that withstood the vibration test: