1. What type of vegetable is Polly?

2. Which type of vegetable was the only vegetable allowed to join the club at the beginning of the story?

3. Can you name three different types of vegetables that were in the story?
Carrot Club Talk Cards

4. Where is the story set?

Carrot Club Talk Cards

5. Who was woken up by the carrots' footsteps?

Carrot Club Talk Cards

6. What did Polly do to get into the club?

Carrot Club Talk Cards

7. Where did the carrots hold their club?
8. How did the carrots discover that Polly was a parsnip?

9. Why did Clive say that sprouts were not allowed in the club?

10. How did the other vegetables feel when they weren’t allowed into the club?

11. What did the carrots learn about all of the other vegetables at the end of the story?
Carrot Club Fact Cards

12. “That’s right,” said Polly, “I am interesting! And so are all these other veggies. But you never even tried to get to know any of us!”

What do you think the author is encouraging the reader to do after reading the story?

Answers

1. Polly is a parsnip.
2. Carrots were the only vegetable allowed to join the club at the beginning of the story.
3. Answers may include; carrots, parsnips, beetroot, broccoli, potatoes, Brussels sprouts, onions.
4. The story is set in a supermarket.
5. Sally Sprout was woken up by the carrots’ footsteps.
6. Polly turned herself orange and pretended to be a carrot to get into the club.
7. The carrots held their club in a cardboard box.
8. The carrots discovered that Polly was a parsnip when the orange paprika came off in the swimming pool.
9. Clive said that sprouts were boring and not cool enough.
10. The other vegetables felt sad and cross when they were not allowed into Carrot Club.
11. The carrots learned not to judge others by appearances.
12. Accept answers that focus on not judging by appearances. The children may also focus on the healthy eating message of the story and that trying lots of different vegetables is good for you.