Dear Parents

Reception Storytelling Workshop

Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances, the Storyteller was unable to attend today. We have managed to re-arrange the workshop for Wednesday 15 January 2020.

All the children look fantastic today, and we can see that many of you put a lot of effort into their costumes. Children are more than welcome to dress up again on Wednesday, however this is optional, and normal uniform can be worn if you prefer.

We would like to pass on apologies from the Storyteller, and we are looking forward to seeing him on Wednesday.

Yours sincerely

Mrs S Mason
Head of Early Years
