14 February 2017

Dear Parents

Book Week

To coincide with National Book Week, I will be holding a book fair within school from 28th February – 3rd March 2017. The children will be reading a range of books, engaging with different texts and writing a variety of creative stories, poems and plays.

The Travelling Book Fair will be coming to school on Tuesday 28th February and will be with us throughout the week for the children to purchase books. Please send money in a sealed envelope with your child’s name on the front and we will help your child select a book and return the change. The book tokens may also be used to purchase books.

The book shop will be open from 3 – 4pm Tuesday and Thursday, giving you the opportunity to purchase books with your child if you prefer. Alternatively, please find enclosed an order form which you can complete and return to school.

On Thursday, the school will be having a dressing up day with the topic being ‘book characters’. All the staff will be dressing up and it should be a fun day with some very strange looking teachers! Please send your child in an appropriate book character costume - let your imaginations run wild!!

On Friday; to highlight the importance of a bedtime story, the children may come to school dressed in their pyjamas. At the end of the school day they will be given a drink of milk and a cookie whilst sharing a story time session with their teacher.

We are all looking forward to Book Week and hope that you will be able to join in with the fun and continue to encourage your child to develop a love of reading and writing.

Yours sincerely

Beverley Elliott
