Reading Game

How to play: You will need a die and a stack of question cards. When it is your turn, roll the die and move the number of spaces shown on the die. If you land on a square with a character on it pick up a card and answer the question. The winner is the first person to the finish.