Anti-Bullying Week, Monday 12th November - Friday 16th November 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

This year the theme is ‘Choose Respect’ and we will be starting off the week by holding an ‘Odd Socks Day’ on Monday 12th November.

What is it?
Most importantly, Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It’s an opportunity for children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique!

There is no pressure on the children to wear the latest fashion or for parents to buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks to school, it couldn’t be simpler and helps to raise awareness around anti-bullying.

On Tuesday 13th November we will have two theatre groups in. Key Stage Two will see a play called ‘Dying to fit in’ and Y3 and Key Stage One will see a play called, ‘A little Respect.’ The children will be doing some work based around these plays and then at the end of each session the cast will have a discussion about the play with the children.

In addition to the above events, we will be holding various activities throughout school (at no extra cost), including an Anti-Cyberbullying Day on Thursday 15th November to raise awareness and tackle cyberbullying.

We hope to have a fun and informative week while supporting Anti-Bullying.

Thank you very much for your continued support,

Mrs Fran Speirs (Anti-Bullying Lead) and all the Newton Anti-bullying ambassadors.
