The sound (shus) is often represented by the letters cious when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'conscious, c ... o ... n ... s ... c ... i ... o ... u ... s'.

If you are conscious (con/scious) of something, you think about it.

If something is precious (pre/cious) to you, you care about it a lot.

A criminal needs to try not to look suspicious (su/spi/cious).

Delicious (de/li/cious) means very tasty.

An alligator is a vicious (vi/cious) animal.

A spacious (spa/cious) room is one that has lots of space in it.

To be gracious (gra/cious) means to be kind and polite.

Ferocious (fe/ro/cious) means very fierce.

To be malicious (ma/li/cious) means to be cruel and nasty.

If you are tenacious (te/na/cious) then you never give up.

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
-cious words

The sound (shus) is often represented by the letters cious when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'conscious, c ... o ... n ... s ... c ... i ... o ... u ... s'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

If you are _______ of something, you think about it.

If something is _______ to you, you care about it a lot.

A criminal needs to try not to look _______.

_______ means very tasty.

An alligator is a _______ animal.

A _______ room is one that has lots of space in it.

To be _______ means to be kind and polite.

_______ means very fierce.

To be _______ means to be cruel and nasty.

If you are _______ then you never give up.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.