Ahoy me hearties!

I be here to tell you abouts St Gregory’s pirate day on Tuesday 17th January. There be special visitors comin’ to our school and shipmates will be involved in pirate activities all day long.

If you wishes to join in with our swashbuckling adventure, you and your little ‘uns can create a ‘Pirate project’ to bring in on the day. I likes me surprises so it’s up to yous what you be making!

Alsos, we’d be lovin’ to see the children in pirate dress up. (or if they be too shy they can paint their faces but still wear uniform – be sure to know that it’s either pirate costume or uniform)

Here’s hopin’ the Captain don’t make anyone walk the plank!
