ALEX Rider makes his TV debut this week with a brand-new series on Amazon Prime Video. We chatted to Otto Farrant, who plays Alex, the teenage spy and star of the Alex Rider books written by Anthony Horowitz.

Hi Otto! What can you tell us about your new show, Alex Rider? Alex Rider is about a teenage boy whose uncle dies unexpectedly, and suddenly he is thrown into a world of espionage. He has to save the world while grieving for his uncle. But it’s also a story about friendship and conquering your demons and forgiveness too. And it’s epic and action-packed! Hopefully everyone will love it.

What’s so exciting about getting to play Alex? I read the books from when I was nine years old and I loved them. And if I felt that, I know that millions of people around the world also felt that. So, I know how much love for the books and the character there is out there. And the only thing that I can do is do my best to live up to the expectations. The books have sold over 19 million copies in 33 languages – it’s insane. So, to play someone that I idolised as a kid is amazing.

What have you enjoyed the most about playing this role? The thing that struck me when I read the books is how well Anthony writes tension and action. In all the books, the most enjoyable bits for me are when Alex has really got to dig deep and save the world because things are really against him. He’s amazing at getting out of those situations. So, the most exciting thing when I got this was to be able to put that on screen and really feel those emotions.

What do you love about Alex? I think I love the character because he is so relatable. He could be anyone. He could be a friend of mine. He could’ve been me. It’s just about the circumstances that he’s put in, and the people that he’s surrounded by. He’s someone who’s complicated and has had a complicated upbringing. He’s been trained all his life by his uncle to be a spy, without knowing. And then he’s a victim of circumstance, in that his parents died when he was younger, and now his uncle’s dead. It’s not easy, and he has to really dig deep to find the courage to save the world, to defeat his own demons. That’s why he’s so iconic, because he encourages us to see a side of ourselves that is steely and resilient [tough].

You do lots of stunts as Alex. Which one have you enjoyed the most? One day on a snowy mountain in Romania, they strapped me to a rig, which was tied to a snow bike. The snow bike just went, and suddenly I was flying about on this thing going down the mountain. I just had to do lots of reaction shots. There were people chasing me with guns on other snow bikes, and I just had to keep my balance and also react to what was going on around me. It was really fun. I think what you’re going to find with Alex Rider is that there are going to be some amazing stunt sequences, but it’s also going to have real depth within the characters to show these are real people and how they go through these experiences.

What did you do to prepare for the role? I did a lot of physical training. I started by building a routine where I was exercising two days on and then one day off. And the kind of exercise I was doing was krav maga, which is an Israeli self-defence training programme. It’s all about efficiency. You can only use it if you’re being attacked or your life is threatened. It’s about getting out of that situation in the most efficient way. The other stuff that I did was climbing. I’ve got really into bouldering, which is my newfound passion. I just go and climb walls for three hours straight – sometimes on my own, sometimes with an instructor. It’s like solving a puzzle in your head while doing physical exercise, which for me relates to the character so much. It’s a really good way of relaxing my brain, but also doing a bit of character work. I’m ready for action now. Always ready for action!
BIG INTERVIEW

1. Identify the people and/or characters.

- Alex Rider
  - A well-known and successful author

- Otto Farrant
  - A fictional teenage spy who is the main character in a series of books

- Anthony Horowitz
  - An actor who will play the role of Alex Rider in a new TV series

2. What is the TV series Alex Rider about? (Top tip: look up the word espionage in the glossary)

3. Why is Otto so excited to play Alex Rider?

4. Find five words that Otto Farrant uses to describe Alex.

5. Otto believes audience expectations of the TV series will be very high. Explain why he believes this.

6a. Explain why Otto thinks climbing was a great way to prepare for playing Alex Rider.

6b. As well as climbing, what else did Otto do to prepare for playing Alex?

7a. What is the headline for this article?

7b. Which effect does the journalist use to create this headline?

   - A twist on a famous phrase
   - A quote from the interview
   - Rhyming of words
   - Alliteration of sounds

8a. Would you like to watch the Alex Rider TV series? Explain why/why not.

8b. Who is this programme suitable for and why?

9. Otto says the programme “is going to have real depth within the characters”. What do you think he means?

10. When Otto was younger, he enjoyed reading the Alex Rider books and he idolised the main character, Alex. Think about some of your favourite all-time books or cartoons and the most interesting characters in them.

   If you were an actor, which of these book characters would you most like to play in a TV series or film and why?

   If I were an actor, I’d like to be ...

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Character:</th>
<th>Book:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Alex Rider</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   Describe the character (looks, habits, personality etc):

   Explain the reasons you would like to play this character in a TV show or film:

   - circumstances – Events or situations affecting something
   - debut – First show
   - efficiency – Doing something effectively
   - espionage – Spy, detective and investigation work
   - idolised – Adored or worshipped
   - krav maga – Israeli self-defence training programme
   - resilient – Strong and can bounce back
BIG INTERVIEW

1. Identify the people and/or characters.

- Alex Rider: The well-known author who wrote this series of books
- Otto Farrant: A fictional teenage spy who is the main character in a series of books
- Anthony Horowitz: An actor who will play the role of Alex Rider in a new TV series

2. What is the TV series Alex Rider about? (Top tip: look up the word espionage in the glossary)

3. Why is Otto so excited to play Alex Rider?

4. Find five words that Otto Farrant uses to describe Alex.

5. Otto believes audience expectations of the TV series will be very high. Explain why he believes this.

6a. Explain why Otto thinks climbing was a great way to prepare for playing Alex Rider.

6b. As well as climbing, what else did Otto do to prepare for playing Alex?
7a. What is the headline for this article?
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................

7b. Which effect does the journalist use to create this headline?

- A twist on a famous phrase
- A quote from the interview
- Rhyming of words
- Alliteration of sounds

8a. Would you like to watch the Alex Rider TV series? Explain why/why not.
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................

8b. Who is this programme suitable for and why?
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................

9. Otto says the programme “is going to have real depth within the characters”. What do you think he means?
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................
.............................................................................................................................................................................................................

10. When Otto was younger, he enjoyed reading the Alex Rider books and he idolised the main character, Alex. Think about some of your favourite all-time books or cartoons and the most interesting characters in them.

If you were an actor, which of these book characters would you most like to play in a TV series or film and why?

If I were an actor, I’d like to be ...

| Character: |
| --- | --- |
| Book: |
| Describe the character (looks, habits, personality etc): |
| Explain the reasons you would like to play this character in a TV show or film: |

TEACHER ANSWERS

AIM OF THE NEWS COMPREHENSIONS: News reports are unique non-fiction texts. Being real, they naturally engage students, and with the range of topics that are covered, help to develop pupils’ knowledge and understanding of the wider world outside the classroom. The reports are ideal for short, focused comprehension or discussion activities. Along with the opportunity to find fascinating facts and appreciate the opinions of those involved, there is plenty to be inferred and deduced to understand in more depth what is being reported. Like authors, journalists play with language, so news ‘stories’ are rich nuggets of text to investigate and provide the opportunity for literacy programmes.

TEACHER ANSWER GUIDE: The teacher answers are intended to provide a quick reference guide. Suggestions are given for the ‘Expected response’ or starting point that pupils could give. The ‘Development’ then gives more in-depth ideas that students can work towards as they develop their reading comprehension skills.

For a list of the reading skills used, please email schools@firstnews.co.uk.

BIG INTERVIEW

1. Identify the people and/or characters.
READING SKILL – Find and explain information (NC2a)

Correct response

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Alex Rider</td>
<td>The well-known author who wrote this series of books</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Otto Farrant</td>
<td>A fictional teenage spy who is the main character in a series of books</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anthony Horowitz</td>
<td>An actor who will play the role of Alex Rider in a new TV series</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. What is the TV series Alex Rider about? (Top tip: look up the word espionage in the glossary)
READING SKILL: Summarise information (NC2e)

Expected response
• A programme about a boy called Alex who saves the world. It is an action series.

Developed response
• Alex Rider is a TV series based on books about the teenage boy ‘Alex’. It is an action-packed programme about a teenage spy who saves the world.

3. Why is Otto so excited to play Alex Rider?
READING SKILL – Infer information and justify with evidence (NC 2c & 8)

Expected response
• Because he enjoyed reading the books when he was a child.

Developed response
• Otto is especially excited about playing Alex, the main character in the new TV series Alex Rider, because it is based on books he enjoyed reading as a child, and a character he adored.

4. Find five words that Otto Farrant uses to describe Alex.
READING SKILL – Understand vocabulary in context (NC 2a)

Expected response:
relatable     courageous     iconic     steely     resilient

5. Otto believes audience expectations of the TV series will be very high. Explain why he believes this.
READING SKILL – Infer information and justify with evidence (NC 2c & 8)

Expected answer
• Otto believes the audience expectations will be high because so many children liked the book that the series is based on.

Developed answer
• Otto believes the audience expectations will be high because so many children liked the book that the series is based on. He believes this because he enjoyed the books so much so he thinks others did too. He also knows that 19 million copies were sold, proving the books were very popular.
6a. Explain why Otto thinks climbing was a great way to prepare for playing Alex Rider.

Expected answer:
• Climbing was great training because it was physically and mentally challenging.

Developed answer:
• Otto found that climbing was great training to prepare for playing Alex as it was physical. This meant he could get fit enough for all the stunts. It was also mentally challenging, like solving a puzzle, which related to the character well.

6b. As well as climbing, what else did Otto do to prepare for playing Alex?

READING SKILL – Find and explain information (NC2a)

Expected answer:
• An Israeli self-defence training programme

Developed answer:
• Krav maga, which is an Israeli self-defence training programme

7a. What is the headline for this article?

Correct response:
• “To play someone I idolised is amazing”.

7b. Which effect does the journalist use to create this headline?

READING SKILL – Recognise the effects of language choices (NC 1e and 1f)

Correct response:
• A quote from the interview

8a. Would you like to watch the Alex Rider TV series? Explain why/why not.

READING SKILL – Develop personal ideas from reading news stories (NC 6, 7 & 8)

Personal responses. For example: Yes, I would like to watch this programme because it sounds exciting and full of action. Or: No, I wouldn’t really be interested in this programme because I don’t like action series and prefer watching comedy programmes.

8b. Who is this programme suitable for and why?

READING SKILL – Infer information and justify with evidence (NC 2c & 8)

• This programme is not suitable for young children. It would suit older children who like action programmes.

9. Otto says the programme “is going to have real depth within the characters”. What do you think he means?

READING SKILL – Infer information based on own knowledge (non-text based inference) (NC 6, 7 & 8)

Expected answer
• This means the characters will seem like real people and the programme will show how the characters tackle and react to different events.

Developed answer
• This means the characters are complex and believable. You will get to know the characters and they have lots going on in their lives. There are lots of layers to their personalities.

10. When Otto was younger, he enjoyed reading the Alex Rider books and he idolised the main character, Alex. Think about some of your favourite all-time books or cartoons and the most interesting characters in them.

If you were an actor, which of these book characters would you most like to play in a TV series or film and why?

READING SKILLS – Develop personal ideas from reading News stories (NC 6, 7 & 8)

Develop opinions and provide justification of viewpoints (NC 6, 7 & 8)

Personal responses such as:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Character:</th>
<th>Terry</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Book:</td>
<td>The 39-Storey Treehouse by Andy Griffiths</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Describe the character (looks, habits, personality etc.)</td>
<td>The character I like best is Terry because he is so funny and he likes to draw. Terry lives with his best friend Andy in a treehouse. Terry is always having crazy ideas and doing funny things. He gets easily distracted.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Explain the reasons you would like to play this character in a TV show or film:</td>
<td>I would like to play Terry in a TV programme because he lives in a really cool treehouse and it would be loads of fun.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>