We have been busy bees setting up a couple of Social Media channels to keep you fully up to date and informed of all the fun we have (and will have!) in school.

Firstly, we have a new Facebook Page. You can follow our page by searching for St Paul's Primary Hereford. Then we have, which is possibly the most exciting, a YouTube channel! The main purpose of our channel is to upload videos of our staff reading stories for your children to enjoy. You can have a look by searching for St Paul's Primary School Hereford.

Our website is also having new content uploaded weekly, so please check back for new and exciting information and resources!

We hope you will enjoy these new ways of communicating with us. If you have any further suggestions, please feel free to contact Mrs Yates.

A big thank you to the team at Ethos for their generous donation to the food bank. (These people are from the same household so didn’t need to be socially distant)

Radio Broadcast from Sid

If you’re in the mood for a song or a dance, tune in to Sid’s radio broadcast. Sid’s in Year 5 and is a great entertainer. This week, he’s taken your requests, so listen out for those: you might get a mention! He’s also interviewed his brother, Oscar. Join them both in wishing their Nan a happy 68th birthday, and just see if you can listen to “I’m Still standing” without feeling compelled to get up from your seat for a bop!

Thank you Sid!

Sade felt inspired to produce this beautiful, uplifting piece of artwork whilst at home this week. It reminds us that with love and kindness we can conquer anything. Thank you Sade.

“Are we happy to share some small feat Aadhvik did in his lockdown period to commemorate VE75 day.

Aadhvik is in reception. Though we are not native of the British Isles, we are well aware of the service of the great British soldiers as myself (his dad) has a very keen interest in history and have read many books and watched numerous documentaries on WW2, and the Great British soldiers who stood in the frontline.

Hence we thought of showing our gratitude to those great martyrs. We decided to do 7.5 kms to commemorate the VE75 Day. Aadhvik cycled nearly 5 miles well above our target of 4.7 miles (ie 7.5 kms) under 2 hrs with good breaks in between.

Below you can see his exhausted picture after completing the targeted miles. Unfortunately, we couldn’t get hold of a British Flag for him to hold in his hand and pose pic ..

Aadhvik is keen to continue with fund raiser events.

Thank you.

Aadhvik, His Dad & Mum “

Each week, at school, we receive a copy of The Week, Junior, a current newspaper for Primary Schools. During the school closure we are able to continue to read articles from this paper online. They are also currently offering articles and activities that can be downloaded for free using the following link:
