Golden Time
Joseph Coelho

Golden time -
jewelled minutes
and silvered seconds?

Golden time
a diamond clock
with ruby numbers?

Golden time -
a free hour
doing what I please?

Golden time -
hands clasped on mouth
catching laughter with a new friend.

Golden time -
the inhale of breath
as the idea chimes.

Golden time
a room of beaming faces,
every heart in sync.

Revision Card – Using Noun Phrases

Making Words Work Harder

Poets tend to use less words than writers of prose. They are often limited by features such as line length, rhythm and form. Poets use less words so their words have to work harder!

Instead of writing,
I think that Golden Time is very valuable and each minute is like a precious jewel.

A poet might write,
Golden Time – jewelled minutes

These words are more powerful because the image is condensed into few words.

Nouns and Noun Phrases create Powerful Images

The precious, ruby ring was hidden.

I found a rather unusual gem.

You can check which words are part of the noun phrase by replacing them with a pronoun.

What is the head noun in each noun phrase?

Which words make up the noun phrase?

The words in the noun phrase depend on the head noun and build on its meaning.

How to build Noun Phrases

Add words before the head noun:
The rocks surrounded the beach.
The horribly craggy rocks surrounded the beach.

Add words after the head noun:
The rocks, with sharp points and deep grooves, surrounded the beach.
The rocks, like ancient sleeping trolls, surrounded the beach.

Or you can do both at once:
The horribly craggy rocks, with a sharp points and deep grooves, surrounded the beach.

Noun Phrases to Convey Information Concisely

I held onto the fin.

I held onto a scarred fin.
I held onto a scarred, firm fin.

Preparing to Perform

1. Read your poem aloud several times, listening to how it sounds.

2. Decide on a good performance space – make sure you all agree.

3. What is the tone of the poem? Is it sad, funny, scary, thoughtful? Does the tone change? How will you show this when you perform it?

4. What sort of character will tell the poem? Are they cheeky, lively, sentimental etc.? How will you show this with voice and gestures?

5. Which words should be emphasised? Underline them and decide how this will be done.

6. Read through the poem deciding who will say which parts. Vary who says what.

7. Build in actions and gestures.

8. Keep practising, aiming to perform from memory.
