With each ‘step’ up the lighthouse, the number doubles. Can you fill all of the spaces?
Lighthouse challenge

The lighthouse keeper painted stripes on the outside of this lighthouse.

Red paint costs £18.00
White paint costs £14.00

The lighthouse keeper spent exactly £200 on paint. How many tins of each colour paint did he buy?
Can you draw the other half of the lighthouse?
High above the village, at the edge of the cliff, sat the Briar’s Rock lighthouse. Its bright light danced over the rooftops and out to sea; the darkness was no match for its strength. In the village, the narrow walkways and paths were bathed in the pale light of a milky moon and bare, sinuous trees awaited their springtime leaves. Amber lights shone from friendly windows and inside noisy villagers danced and applauded. Houses of all sizes dotted the grassy clifftop, and beyond the cliffs and the pretty, little village, the restless sea gurgled and churned. Light swept the village. The villagers cheered. Light swept the village. More applause. The lighthouse, which didn’t benefit from the same warm glow of the beam, or the same cheeriness of the village, stood stoically watching in the near darkness.

1. What is the name of the lighthouse?

2. Why do you think the moon is described as ‘milky’?

3. Why is the word ‘swept’ used to describe how the light moves?

4. Which word is used to describe the sea?

5. How is the village described so that it seems cheery?

6. Why do you think the villagers cheered?
Watch the clip. Can you write the story from where the lamp smashes and the ship approaches? Remember to make your writing as exciting as possible. Use the next page to write your story.

Some things you might want to include...
A verb to start a sentence.
E.g. Racing down the steps, the lighthouse keeper could only think of one thing: the ship.

An adverb to start a sentence.
E.g. Swiftly, the lighthouse keeper darted down the steps.

Try adding some short, snappy sentences to add excitement.
E.g. He froze.

Tell the reader when something happened.
E.g. Moments later, he heard the loud honk of a ship’s horn.

Use adjectives (describing words) to add interest.
E.g. The dark, turbulent sea chewed at the jagged rocks beneath him, and a pale moon barely lit the sky.

Use a simile to compare something in the story to something else.
E.g. He stared at the approaching boat like a wild animal caught in the headlights.

Make vocabulary swaps for smarter words.
E.g. He noticed the boat-vessel heading for the rocks and realised the danger-peril they faced.

Use repetition to keep the reader’s interest.
E.g. The black sky hid the lighthouse. The black sea tossed the boat. The black rocks lay in wait.
Create a comic strip of the story
