Thursday 26th March 2020.
Focus: Can I identify the key features of an information text?

1. Target, date and focus.
2. Daily spellings subheading
3. Look at the text on your table.
Today, we are going to be looking at examples of information texts. These kinds of texts are written to give information to the people reading them.

There are lots of different types of information texts. Can you think of a type of writing that gives you information?
Task 1: Read the text that is on your table. Can you find any features in the text? Are these features different to other texts we have read?

Features of information texts
Key features:
1. Title
2. Picture or diagram
3. Captions under pictures
4. Formal language
5. Facts
6. Figures
7. Clearly set out
8. Subheadings.
Task 2: Using the text you have chosen, stick it into your book and annotate the key features in your book.

Success criteria:
1. Use a ruler to annotate
2. Use your mind map to help you.
3. Write neatly.
4. Stick the text in the middle of your page.