Principles of Science

Science is good when...

• All Icknield pupils are engaged in their learning and developing a sense of independence.

• They are developing a sense of curiosity and enjoy finding out about the world around them.

• The full range of resources and teaching environments are used.

• Science is taught regularly across the school.