POST 16 – Policy for Academic Support - DAP targets and use of Study Periods

Student is on Target in 3 or more subjects (A-Levels) or 1 subject (Vocational)

- Students will be able to choose to study on or off site in all study periods.
- They must continue to attend all Tutor times and assemblies at 8.45am, enrichment and PHSCE sessions.

Student is off Target in 1 subject (A-Levels)

- Students will be able to choose to study on or off site in all study periods.
- They must continue to attend all Tutor times and assemblies at 8.45am, enrichment and PHSCE sessions.
- Students will be placed on a PSP (Pupil Support Plan) in that one subject by the key subject teacher. Together they will set targets to enable students to get back on target.

Student is off Target in 2 subjects (A-Levels)

- Students must study on site in all study periods unless agreed with myself.
- They can study in any of the study rooms on site.
- They must continue to attend Tutor times, assemblies and enrichment.
- Students will be placed on a PSP (Pupil Support Plan) in the 2 subjects by the key subject teachers. Together they will set targets to enable students to get back on target.
- Y13 only. Students will have a new timetable issued adding additional y12 lessons in the subjects they have fallen behind in. They must attend these in order to revisit course content.

Student is off Target in 3/+ subjects (A-Levels) or 1 subject (Vocational) or has any U grade predictions

- Students must remain onsite between 8.45am-3.15pm Monday-Friday, excluding holidays.
- Where free periods remain on their timetable they must ask an adult to sign them in, either their teachers or the attendance officers.
- They must continue to attend Tutor times, assemblies and enrichment
- Students will be monitored and supported by the post 16 team.
- Students will have a bespoke plan following their meeting and therefore they may not always receive the same programme as a similar student.
- Students will be placed on a PSP (Pupil Support Plan) in the 3/+ subjects by the key subject teachers. Together they will set targets to enable students to get back on target.
- Y13 only. Students will have a new timetable issued adding additional y12 lessons in the subjects they have fallen behind in. They must attend these in order to revisit course content.
