Changing Economic World 1: LICs (India)

Paper 2

Question 2

RAG rate regularly to check your learning/inform your revision

| | | | | | | | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>8</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

L1: We are learning different ways of classifying parts of the world according to their levels of economic development & quality of life so that we can

- Identify different economic and social measures of development
- Explain the limitations of these measures

L2: We are learning what is the demographic transition model (DTM) so that we can

- Explain the DTM
- Explain how the DTM links to links to economic development

L3: We are learning why economic development is uneven so that we can

- Describe the causes of uneven development
- Explain the consequences of uneven development

L4: We are learning how the development gap can be reduced so that we can

- Describe different strategies to reduce the development gap
- Describe how Kenya is using tourism to reduce the development gap

L5: We are learning about the economic development of India so that we can

- Locate India
- Explain why India is important politically, socially, culturally & environmentally

L6: We are learning about the economic development of India so that we can

- Describe the changing industrial structure
- Describe how manufacturing industry can stimulate economic development
- Describe the role of TNCs & identify their advantages and disadvantages to India

L7: We are learning about the economic development of India so that we can

- Describe how the politics and trading relationships is changing with the wider world
- Describe how different types of aid is impacting on India

L8: We are learning about the economic development of India so that we can

- Describe the environmental impacts economic development in India
- Describe the social impacts of economic development in India